Thank you very much for having loaned us the enclosed volume. We have found it most interesting and have taken photostats of all the pages. That is what has caused the delay in returning it to you.

I appreciate very much your kindness in letting us have this book and your kindness also in putting up with the delay in returning it to you.

If you should come to Washington, I should be very happy to see you any time that might be convenient, and, when I come through New York again, I shall try to bother you for a few more moments.

With very best wishes, believe me,

Sincerely,

s/ RHH - Disp 6/10/48
